SACATON MAN INDICTED FOR INVOLUNTARY MANSLAUGHTER AND AGGRAVATED ASSAULT OF 15-YEAR-OLD BOY AND 22-YEAR-OLD WOMAN

PHOENIX, ARIZONA -- Paul K. Charlton, United States Attorney for the District of Arizona, announced that on April 9, 2003, a federal grand jury at Phoenix, Arizona, returned an indictment against Daniel Enos, of Sacaton, Arizona. The indictment charges the defendant with two counts of Involuntary Manslaughter and two counts of Aggravated Assault.

The indictment alleges that the defendant caused the deaths of a 15-year-old boy and 22-year-old woman because of a vehicular accident that occurred when the defendant was driving while intoxicated.

The federal indictment charges Daniel Enos with violating Title 18 of the United States Code, Sections 113 and 1112.

A conviction for Aggravated Assault carries a maximum penalty of 10 years in prison and $250,000 fine or both. A conviction for Involuntary Manslaughter carries a maximum penalty of 10 years in prison and $250,000 fine or both.

Mr. Charlton stressed that an indictment is simply the method by which a person is charged with criminal activity and raises no inference of guilt. An individual is presumed innocent until competent evidence is presented to a jury that establishes guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

The investigation preceding the indictment was conducted by the Gila River Police Department.

The prosecution is being handled by Sharon K. Sexton, Assistant United States Attorney, District of Arizona, Phoenix, Arizona.
